The American Numismatic Society
New York City

8 December 1909

My dear Mr. Borglum:

I have received a letter from Mr. Saltus, giving me the enclosed list of medals to be struck from the dies which you have in hand at present. This medal is to be used as a Members' Medal, and you will receive from the Society instructions as to the number needed eventually, but the special list enclosed herewith refers to copies to be struck in advance, and the boxes of which should carry the name as an indication of the person for whom they are intended.

I have suggested to Mr. Saltus that, instead of striking the gold medal for myself, he should strike it for Mr. Morgan in order that his series of gold medals of the Society should not lack this example of the Society's work. I would suggest that you speak to Mr. Saltus in regard to this matter.

Very sincerely yours

June 2, 1908.

Mr. Nelson Barclay,
184 West 36th Street,
New York.

Dear Mr. Belden:

I have your letter regarding the Numismatic Fellowship Medal, and I can only tell you that the medal simply represents the maker of a medal examining his own work. On the other side is the usual wreath of honor and inscription. It does not appear to me that it is anything one need write very much about.

Yours very truly,

Chas. B. Belden

Stamford, Conn., December 18th, 1923.

Sydney P. Noe, Esq.,
American Numismatic Society,
New York City.

My dear Sir:-

Mr. Borglum is in the south and we have been weekly expecting him back, or I should have answered your letter regarding the medal before this. He will not now return before next week. I can see no reason why you should not have a copy of the medal in your collection and I am sure Mr. Borglum would give his permission. I do not think he feels under any obligations of courtesy to those for whom the medal was struck, as they formed a very loose organization, functioning poorly.

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Mary Borglum
